The Coldest Night of the Year is a winterrific family-friendly walk to raise money to serve those experiencing hurt, hunger, and homelessness. This year, Our Place Society is hosting a walk in Victoria and partnering with Pacific Centre Family Services Association (PCFSA) for a campaign in the Westshore. Both offer fantastic community sponsorship opportunities! Let's come together to show care and support for the most vulnerable members of society and showcase your business's core values.

About OPS and PCFSA

We offer places of safety and support to those struggling with mental health challenges, barriers to accessing healthcare, poverty, and homelessness.

Working in partnership with businesses, community groups, schools, local churches, and volunteers, our programs meet the practical needs of each guest who visits.

With help from companies like yours:

- Our place serves over 1,200 meals each day to anyone in need and provides over 500 shelter spaces in our region.
- Last year, PCFSA Served over 3,000 Individuals from 14 different municipalities in the Westshore and surrounding areas. Since June 2022, PCFSA has also offering medical care, including outreach, for the most vulnerable members of our community.
- Both charities have celebrated over 50 years of providing vital programs and services across South Vancouver Island.
